Destroy My Empire, My Son, Amen And Amen!

“My son, I Am going to destroy your Empire. I Am God. It will start with a financial crash. Millions of people will lose their homes. I Am LORD over all of the wicked sinners I must punish for their extreme selfishness and excessive greed. The wrath of God has come upon them, My son. I must punish My people. Then the pandemic will come. Millions of people will lose their lives because they do not worship Me nor will they bow the knee in humble repentance. I will destroy My wicked sinners. Then I will destroy the land with earthquakes. Homes will be sunken into the earth, destroyed forever. My people care more about things than Me. I will save who I will save, and the rest will go to Hell. I Am God, My son. Obey Me. I will provide for you. Depend on Me. I Am faithful to My Chosen, My Elect people. Obey Me. I Am God. Your LORD has spoken. Amen.”
